

How fast do you need to be mixing when you have grout in the second container ready to grout?

After the full speed mixing, you transfer it to the second (agitator tank). In that tank it just needs to keep moving so it doesn't gel up from the antibleed admixture. So, lowest speed on paddle in the second tank is good.