

Is there a minimum length required for trumpets or is that determined by the design engineer during the design phase? Or are all trumpet lengths determined by the diameter of the anchor head diameter?

I do not know if there is a minimum length. Generally, details like this will be determined by the design engineer or the construction engineer developing the PT system. Individual systems are developed by the manufacturer and are used for each project based on the use and characteristics of the project.