

What action to be taken if grout leaks happen from a minor crack during grouting?
Should grouting continue?

For a minor crack, generally yes, continue grouting. If a leak was noted, post-grout inspection looking for any voids is recommended. Attempt to plug the leak during grouting and revisit the location of the leak during post-grout inspection.